GIANT STRIDERS.

Connoisseurs, the fashionable world whose palates easily detect superiority in excellence, set the stamp of approval, and by general adoption are advancing the popular brand of Moët & Chandon "White Seal" Champagne towards exclusive use at a very rapid pace. The increase in sales for the year 1902 over 1901 was 367,116 bottles, a record never before attained in the history of the Champagne trade, marking a gain equal to 564 per cent. greater than the combined increase of all the other brands of Champagne. Moët & Chandon White Seal is acknowledged as "The Acme of Perfection."

A certain pastor was in the habit of pointing his sermons with either "dearly beloved brethren," or "Now, my brothers." One day a lady member of his congregation took exception to this, and asked him why he always preached to the gentlemen and never to the ladies. "My dear lady," replied the beaming pastor, "one embraces the other." "But not in church!" was the lady's ready reply.

WAITING FOR EACH OTHER.—"Do you know dear," remarked Mrs. Homer as her legs and feet stumbled up stairs, "that I've been a wake for hours waiting for you to come home from the club?" "That's like a woman!" growled Homer. "There I was at the club for hours waiting for you to go to sleep."

HARDMAN PIANO.

Time, the destroyer of most earthly things, has no respect whatever for the average piano-forte. One that will improve with use is so exceptional that it stands out prominently. Hardman, Peck & Co. boldly make this claim for the Hardman Piano: "THE ONLY PIANO WHICH IMPROVES WITH USE." This is not an idle boast. These instruments are made to last. They have stood every possible test, and have emerged triumphantly. They contain many improvements and distinctive features, which have given them their high position. The case designs are singularly beautiful, but their most potent charm is their tone, in which mellowness, sweetness and power are combined. From every point of view the Hardman Piano is worthy of unreserved commendation. Hardman, Peck & Co. respectfully invite you to visit their warehouses, 19th St. and Fifth Ave., and inspect their art productions.

Fortune-telling by the finger-nails was not uncommon in ancient times. The practice was to rub the nails with oil and soot or wax, and to hold up the nails thus prepared against the sun, and upon the transparent horny substance were supposed to appear figures or characters which gave the answer required.

Its population ever increases, the attractive West Side getting a goodly portion of the new-comers.

We want them to know our store—not only them, but also those who think that when they shop they must wander downtown.

Thousands appreciate our establishment, and to those who know us not we ask for a visit, which will disclose to them a well-kept store with surprising assortments of the choicest goods, always priced a shade lower than elsewhere.

Close to half a century retailing in this city is a pretty good reference.

Synopsis of the Story of "The Wizard of Oz."

Dorothy, a Kansas girl, is blown by a cyclone to the fairy land of Oz, being accompanied by a pet calf named Imogene. When her house falls in this strange country it crashes the wicked witch who has ruled the Munchkins, setting those people free. The good witch soon becomes her ruler, and, in gratitude, Dorothy gives her a magic ring and sends her to the wonderful Wizard of Oz, who alone is thought powerful enough to send the girl back to Kansas. By means of the ring Dorothy wishes a scarecrow to life, and, realizing he has no brains, goes with her to procure some from the wizard. They meet a tin woodman whose joints have rusted, and restore him by oiling his joints; he is lacking a heart, and joins Dorothy's party hoping to get a heart from the wizard; his name is Niccolo Chopper, and he was transformed to a man of tin by the wicked witch because he had dared to make love to a beautiful Munchkin girl named Cynthia. Being without a heart he could no longer love his sweetheart, and Cynthia, driven mad by her lover's loss, wanders everywhere in search of him, hoping to recognize him by means of a favorite tune he was accustomed to play upon the piccolo.

The same cyclone that brought Dorothy from Kansas also carried Trizix, a waitress at a lunch counter, and a Topeka motorman named Pastora, who turns out to be the former king of the Emerald City now ruled by the wizard. Years ago this wizard had come to the land of Oz in a balloon, usurped Pastora's throne, and sent the ex-king adrift in the balloon; it carried him to Kansas; and now the cyclone returns him, and he determines to regain his throne and have revenge upon the wizard.

Meantime an aged citizen of Oz, Sir Willey Oyle, has discovered the wizard's tricks to be fraudulent, and plans to expose him and win the throne for himself. Pastora, on his way to the Emerald City, encounters a cowardly lion, and disguises himself as the proprietor of a one-ring circus, with the lion as chief attraction and Trizix premier entertainment.

Pastora's party joins that of Dorothy, and, in crossing a field of deadly poppy flowers, they are all overcome by the poisonous scent of the poppies, and only rescued by Dorothy's ring blowing the good wind to their rescue. The witch invokes the Frost King and the Queen of the Snowflakes, who transfer the blooming poppy field into a wintry waste, destroying all the treacherous flowers.

On reaching the Emerald City the scarecrow is given brains by the false wizard and the tin woodman receives a heart, but Dorothy cannot get back to Kansas. Sir Willey having asailed the bottom of the wizard's trick basket Pastora is nearly smothered while endeavoring to expose it, a wizard's ricks. But the people recognize their returned king, and he is restored to his proper station, his first act being to imprison all who have opposed him.

The scarecrow and the tin woodman succeed in escaping Pastora, but Sir Willey and the wizard become convicts and are sentenced to join the street-cleaning gang.

Dorothy is rescued by the good witch, who summons the spirits of the air to transport the girl back to her Kansas home.

A SUPERB PIANO.

There is no piano manufactured that is so universally commended by expert performers, and so admired by the rank and file of players, as the SOHMER. It is not a cheap piano, built merely for selling; but considering its countless points of superiority, its matchless purity and richness of tone, and the marvelous beauty of the instrument, it is the cheapest piano anywhere manufactured. It is practically unrivalled.

THE GENUINE MENNEN'S.

There is more comfort for men, women and children in a box of MENNEN'S BORATED TALCUM TOILET POWDER than in any other toilet preparation ever discovered. It is not only a luxury, but a necessity. To allay the painful effects of chafed skin, prickly heat, sunburn, or any other affliction of the skin, USE MENNEN'S BORATED TALCUM TOILET POWDER. To make the baby comfortable and keep it contented. To preserve razor-rash and secure ease to tender skins, use Mennen's. To impart a natural tone to a woman's complexion, and give a delicate finish to the toilet, use Mennen's.

Avoid Substitutes. The merit of MENNEN'S BORATED TALCUM TOILET POWDER has encouraged a number of cheap and dangerous substitutes. There is nothing "just as good" as Mennen's. It is entirely different in principle and composition from all other toilet, infant, and complexion powders. The genuine has MENNEN'S face on the cover of every box. Refuse others. Sold everywhere in twenty-five cents.

Our Waters are being prescribed by and used in the families of over 1,300 leading physicians in New York, which is sufficient guarantee of their purity and wholesomeness.

The Natural Waters will also be dispensed to those desiring them.

ALL RECORDS ECLIPSED.

According to Custom-House statistics, more than ONE MILLION bottles of MOET & Chandon Champagne were brought into the port of New York in the year 1902, being the largest quantity ever imported into this port, in any year, by any one house, which places MOET & CHANDON ahead of all their competitors in New York, as it does in the world, marking an advance in this country equal to 564 PER CENT. GREATER than the combined increase of all the other champagne houses.

"Not a small share of this increase has been due to the hearty indorsement given to MOET & CHANDON 'WHITE SEAL' champagne by leading physicians throughout the country. Such endorsements, coming from men with a medical conscience, confer on MOET & Chandon the crown of qualitative excellence."—(Extract Bonfort's Wine & Spirit Circular, Jan. 10, 1903.)
